Pango Pockets

Ages 5–12

FREE PRINTABLE · SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

My Holiday Fun Plan

Six weeks, one pot of holiday money, and 20 free things to do in Singapore. Plan the fun, plan the money, make it last.

6-week planner | 20 free SG ideas | Envelope labels | Money question

Grown-ups: grab 6 envelopes. Split the holiday money one per week and let your child run their own budget.

More free money games + printables: pangopockets.com

Education only, not financial advice. Free for personal and classroom use. © 2026 Pango Pockets

@pangopockets

My Holiday Fun Plan

Six weeks of school holidays. Plan your fun, plan your money, and make it last to the end!

My holiday money: $

Per week, about: $

	Free fun I'll do	One treat I'll pay for	Money left
Week 1			$
Week 2			$
Week 3			$
Week 4			$
Week 5			$
Week 6			$

Grown-ups: split the holiday money into 6 envelopes, one per week (labels on page 4). Whatever is left in an envelope can roll over to next week, or go into the Save jar.

Education only, not financial advice. Free for personal and classroom use. © 2026 Pango Pockets

20 free (or almost free) fun ideas

Tick each one you do. How many can your family try before school starts?

- [ ] Borrow 5 books from a public library
- [ ] Picnic at a neighbourhood park
- [ ] Cycle or scoot along a park connector
- [ ] Sandcastle day at East Coast Park
- [ ] Nature walk at MacRitchie or a nature park
- [ ] Explore the Singapore Botanic Gardens
- [ ] Fly a kite at Marina Barrage
- [ ] Playground hop: try 3 new ones
- [ ] Visit a museum (many are free for citizens and PRs)
- [ ] Hawker food hunt with a $5 budget
- [ ] Bus adventure to a neighbourhood you've never seen
- [ ] Family board game afternoon
- [ ] Bake something at home, then work out what it cost
- [ ] Run a drinks stand for the family
- [ ] Make birthday cards for the year ahead
- [ ] Toy swap with cousins or friends
- [ ] Put on a show for grandparents
- [ ] Stargazing night from the void deck
- [ ] Photo hunt: find 10 things that are red
- [ ] Grow a plant from a seed

Money question for the last day of the holidays: "Which day was the most fun? How much did it cost?" The answer is often $0.

Education only, not financial advice. Free for personal and classroom use. © 2026 Pango Pockets

Holiday envelope labels

Cut along the dashes and stick one on each envelope. Open one envelope per week, no peeking ahead!

Week 1

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Week 2

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Week 3

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Week 4

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Week 5

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Week 6

Money in: $

Left at the end: $

Education only, not financial advice. Free for personal and classroom use. © 2026 Pango Pockets

@pangopockets

Pango Pockets

For grown-ups

You did it! High five!

Thanks for joining the Pango Pockets list. New printables and games land in your inbox first.

Follow @pangopockets

A money idea every day and a new free game most weeks. Scan with your phone camera.

Play the free games

No sign-up, no ads. Kids practise spending, saving and spotting scams.
pangopockets.com/play

Know a parent who'd love this? Send them to pangopockets.com. It's free.

Education only, not financial advice. Free for personal and classroom use. © 2026 Pango Pockets

@pangopockets